2005 Pinot Noir Promotion

The best dish complementing the Wonga Estate 2005 Pinot Noir

Chill on Tedder's promotional dish, Crispy Duck Leg Confit, braised red cabbage, truffle scented mash, buttered baby spinach, confit duck and sweet potato boudin, white raisin jus, is of first class. The initiative, enthusiasm and attention to detail is certainly shown in this dish. The duck was crispy as stated, and accompanied with the truffle mash, red cabbage and white raisin jus, I believe was a perfect marriage to the Wonga Estate 2005 Pinot Noir. This dish brought out some lovely plum and cherry characters in the pinot noir with a long savoury finish at the end.

After some very difficult consideration the first prize, for the best dish complementing the Wonga Estate 2005 Pinot Noir, is awarded to Chill on Tedder.

The second prize, based on the most volume sales at the end of the promotion period, being one dozen of Wonga Estate's newly created wine, The Fugue, is awarded to Olivettos.

Once again congratulations and thank you for supporting Wonga Estate
